

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

Since the FCC began allowing consolidation of media ownership in the '80s public discourse has declined and our democracy has suffered. The FCC must restore diversity in media ownership.